

In The Country Park

Today Sam and I had picnic in the park. We had sandwiches to eat. We exclaimed, 'Delicious!' We were excited!

Then we saw a lot of yummy apples in the tree. 'Let's pick some apples there!' Sam suggested. I said, 'Be careful! The security guard is here.' Sam said, 'The security guard is sleeping. He won't see us.'

When Sam and I climbed up the tree, we saw a beehive. I said, 'Sam, please climb down quickly! The bees were coming to us! We found somewhere to hide. I ran faster than Sam. Oh! Sam fell down. I needed to run to him and help him. Then he said, 'John, no need to help me. You go ahead!' I couldn't leave Sam behind because he is my best friend. I helped him and hid in the grass. After the bees flew over us, we were safe.

Finally, we went back home. We told my mother everything. She said, 'You're very naughty! No picnic anymore!' We were very upset. However, we got something more important – friendship.

Today Sam and I went to the country park. We had a picnic there. We ate some sandwiches. They tasted good.

After eating, we saw an apple tree. There were a lot of apples on it. So I decided to climb up the tree because I wanted to pick some apples to eat as a snack.

When I climbed up, I suddenly saw a beehive right in front of me. The bees looked like they were about to sting me. Then, I shouted, 'Sam! There's a beehive in front of me!' I felt scared because I'm scared that the bees will sting me. At the same time, the bees were rushing to me. So I climbed down and ran as fast as I could to get away from the bees. Suddenly I fell onto the ground and the bees stung me. Then Sam looked for the park keeper to bring me to the hospital because I was stung by a lot of bees. At last I learnt that never climb up a tree ever again.
