

A very bad day

Yesterday May went home by bus after school. It was a rainy day. May got on the bus but it was full. May stood on the bus because she did not find any seats. May felt so tired.

The bus driver drove very fast. He saw the traffic light turned red. He stopped the bus at once. May and some other passengers fell down. May was painful. The other passengers helped May to stand up.

May got off the bus later. She found that her school bag was left on the bus. She was shocked. After that, she ran to the bus company with her mum. They asked the staffs to find the school bag. Finally, they found it. They were happy.
